

Difference between the shares in the initial states and in the general population
( $> 0$  means over represented in the synthetic data)

