

Difference between the shares in the initial states and in the general population
(> 0 means over represented in the synthetic data)

